PREFACE

The ELENA Index of Useful Addresses lists organisations and individuals providing legal services and other forms of support to refugees and asylum seekers in Europe. It is not intended to be a complete directory of all organisations and persons active in the asylum field, but reflects the information provided by the ELENA Coordinators in the various countries. It is up to them to decide according to the needs and circumstances in their country how detailed their address list should be.

The ELENA Index is meant to serve as a tool for lawyers and legal counsellors participating in the European Legal Network on Asylum in their daily counselling and advocacy work. It provides addresses of colleagues and organisations in other countries which are useful when working with refugee and asylum law.

The ELENA Index is updated on a bi-annual co-ordinated basis from the ECRE Secretariat. For more up-to-date information, additions, corrections and comments please contact the ELENA National Coordinators in the respective country or the ECRE Secretariat via e-mail: ecre@ecre.org or fax: +32 (0)2 514 5922.

This document is for internal use by agencies dealing with refugees and asylum seekers. It can be distributed to individuals with links to such an agency.

EUROPEAN COUNCIL ON REFUGEES AND EXILES

The European Council on Refugees and Exiles (ECRE) is an organisation established in 1974 for cooperation between 79 non-governmental organisations concerned with refugees. The work of ECRE is coordinated by its office in Brussels and London and advised by an Executive Committee comprising voluntary agency representatives from several regions of Europe.

ECRE's principal objective is to promote through joint analysis, research and information exchange, a humane and generous asylum policy throughout Europe. ECRE is concerned with the needs of individuals who seek asylum in Europe, and the development of a comprehensive response to the global refugee problem. The European Legal Network on Asylum (ELENA) is an important project of ECRE.

Working through its member agencies, ECRE aims:

- to articulate the demands for humane and generous refugee policies arising from a growing sector of civil society at a time of intolerance and xenophobia;
- to encourage the informed discussion of policy options before states and to mobilise public opinion in favour of positive choices;
- to act as an information source and warning mechanism about negative developments and threats to the institution of asylum and to the needs of individuals fleeing persecution;
- to undertake advocacy as a form of humanitarian action in support of national and international refugee protection;
- to offer its specific competence to policy makers, based on a detailed knowledge of the predicament of refugees and the legal and social requirements specific to them;
- to bring about the greater integration of the activities of refugee assisting NGOs throughout the wider European region to reflect, and contribute to, the pan-European development of human rights and refugee policies.

INTRODUCTION TO ELENA

The European Legal Network on Asylum (ELENA) is a forum for legal practitioners who promote the highest human rights standards for the treatment of refugees, asylum seekers and other persons in need of international protection in their daily individual counselling and advocacy work. The ELENA network extends across most European states and involves some 2,000 lawyers and legal counsellors.

ELENA's objectives are pursued by:

- providing and reinforcing contact between practising lawyers and legal counsellors in different European countries who work on asylum cases;
- facilitating the exchange of information and experience between these lawyers and legal counsellors;
- studying the implementation of national and international law relating to refugees;
- organising seminars on specific topics relating to refugee law and making the results available to practising lawyers;
- promoting the development of national networks of lawyers specialising in asylum law.

ELENA reinforces direct personal contact between lawyers to promote cooperation on emergency cases and support services between countries, including Central and Eastern Europe.

The work of ELENA is coordinated by the ECRE Secretariat in London in continuous and close consultation with the ELENA National Coordinators comprising practising legal advisers from a range of European countries.

VII. LEGAL AID

According to the 2005 Asylum Act legal advice has to be provided during the admission procedure in one of the two initial reception centres in Austria. For unaccompanied minors the legal advisor also serves as the legal representative until representation is taken over by the local youth welfare office.

For all other matters concerning Asylum Law asylum-seekers have the possibility to contact appointed legal counsels.

In cases where representation by lawyers is mandatory, asylum-seekers may apply for legal aid.

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal aid is available under the "Code Judiciaire" ("Gerechtigd Wetboek"). This free legal aid applies to court fees, lawyer's fees and lawyer's expenses. A request should be made to the relevant Bar Association of each judicial district. A lawyer is then designated who receives a small amount from the state. The Brussels bar is organising legal aid for the refugees detained in the airport reception center of Zaventem near Brussels.

VII. LEGAL AID

The overall responsibility of asylum issues in BiH lies with the Ministry of Security of the BiH Council Of Ministers. The ministry signed the protocol on cooperation with the Association “Vasa Prava BiH”, by which the association “Vasa prava BiH” was given exclusive right to provide free legal assistance and counselling to asylum seekers, refugees and victims of human trafficking. The protocol also enables lawyers of “Vasa prava BiH” to access reception and asylum centres. Lawyers of the association are called on by the State Border Service when an asylum seeker first enters the country at some of the border crossings.

The association has 16 field offices and over 60 professional legal staff. The beneficiaries are mainly displaced persons, returnees, repatriates (whether they return to their places of origin or become internally displaced upon repatriation), refugees and minority members of the population. The Ministry of Security authorised the association to provide legal aid and information in all issues pertaining to asylum, human trafficking and refugees.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

The following organizations provide assistance at the airport:

OPU (Organization for Aid to Refugees)
Caritas

(for contact details see section IV.)

VII. LEGAL AID

NGOs such as OPU, SOZE, PPU and Caritas provide free legal assistance to asylum seekers up to the first appeal stage. Representation during the appeals procedure before the High Court is mandatory and therefore asylum seekers who lack the necessary financial means are represented free of charge at second and higher appeals by appointed lawyers if the respective courts decides to grant free of charge aid. However, there is no Legal Aid Act in the Czech Republic. Representation at these stages is also provided for free by NGOs such as OPU, SOZE, PPU and Caritas.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

No special services are provided to asylum seekers at airports or borders.

VII. LEGAL AID

The refugee determination procedure at the first decision-making stage is not covered by the legislation on free legal aid. Refugee Advice Centre provides legal advice and counselling services at this stage. Counselling services are free for the applicant. RAC has four offices in different parts of the country. Appeals procedures to the administrative courts are covered by the law of free legal aid as well as detention hearings in courts.

VII. LEGAL AID

In order to qualify for legal aid or refugee claim, two conditions must be fulfilled: legal entry and the possession, for at least one year, of a stay permit. However, the second condition can never be fulfilled as a stay permit is only valid for up to three months. The jurisprudence seems to indicate that legal aid may be granted to an asylum seeker if s/he can show that s/he received a stay permit from the authorities within eight days of entry to France. This is only possible before the Commission de Recours (appeal instance). Where the applicant for asylum is in the so-called international zone of an airport and able to contact a judge after four days, s/he has the right to a legal aid lawyer. For penal cases there are no restrictive conditions applied to legal aid to foreigners.

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers are not entitled to state-funded legal aid prior or during the first instance procedure conducted by the Federal Office for the Recognition of Foreign Refugees.

Legal aid may be granted during the second and further instances before the administrative courts, regardless of what the applicant is applying for. A positive decision depends on two major conditions:

- the applicant has to be considered as "poor" (dependent on public means/social benefits) by showing official social aid receipts or equivalent documents;

- the applicant must be able to demonstrate that his/her application has a reasonable chance to succeed.

Denial of legal aid cannot be reviewed judicially.

VII. LEGAL AID

No system exists for free legal counselling for asylum seekers at any stage of the procedure, with the exception of the counselling provided by lawyers of the Greek Refugee Council and the Medical Rehabilitation Centre for Torture Victims, as well as the other NGOs supporting asylum seekers. The GCR may intervene even at early stages of the procedure (with the exception of access to the territory, because there is no information available). As far as the Medical Rehabilitation Centre is concerned, intervention usually takes place at a later stage when the torture victim seeks help from the Centre and in the event that status problems arise.

A national Lawyer's Network has been established as from summer 1995. The Network is composed of lawyers from all over Greece with emphasis on the border areas. All the Bar Associations collaborate.

VII. LEGAL AID

The Hungarian Legal Aid Act allows for ex post facto granting of legal aid (and reimbursement of legal fees) if the legal assistance does not require more than 2 hours, or if the legal assistance does not require more than 4 hours of work and the case is urgent.

In these cases, the client contacts the legal aid provider directly, and the legal aid provider will take care of claiming his/her fees and costs from the Legal Aid Office once the assistance has been provided to the client. In all other cases, the beneficiary of legal aid first needs to have his/her application for legal aid approved by the legal aid office, and may only then approach a legal aid provider.

As the second scenario takes longer and is considerably more cumbersome for non-Hungarian-speaking clients, given that asylum cases are arguably urgent (i.e. there are short deadlines etc.), the Hungarian Helsinki Committee's and its network lawyers' practice is to use option 1 and only claim legal fees once the actual legal assistance has been provided to the client. However, if there is a need for more hours to be spent on a given asylum case, in principle this is possible under the legal aid system – however, in practice this requires much more paperwork and is also time-consuming.

We would also like to underline that due to low fee levels, no provisions for travel and interpretation costs, no provision for legal representation in the judicial procedure, the legal aid system is yet far from being suitable to fully take over the costs of legal counselling to asylum-seekers.

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal aid for asylum seekers is provided solely through the Refugee Legal Service, an office established by the Legal Aid Board to provide confidential and independent legal services to persons applying for asylum in Ireland. Over the last three years the RLS has provided services to approximately 70% of people seeking asylum in Ireland. The RLS offers advice and representation to those at all stages of the asylum process and has offices in Dublin, Cork and Galway. Since its establishment in 1999, staff of the RLS have developed specialist expertise in all areas of refugee and asylum law. Solicitors employed by the RLS work exclusively in the area of refugee law and are committed to providing a professional, independent and confidential service to their clients. The RLS has a dedicated children's unit and a specialised judicial review unit. Many barristers and some solicitors do often take cases pro bono, or on a no fee basis, but cannot provide a legally aided service.

Country of Origin Information Experts

The Refugee Documentation Centre (RDC) is an independent library and research service within the Legal Aid Board. The role of the RDC is to provide a research and query service for all organisations involved in the asylum process. To that end, the RDC builds and maintains a collection of objective, up to date country of origin information (COI) and asylum, immigration and human rights information. The Centre provides training and fosters cooperation with similar agencies abroad to advance knowledge of COI research. The RDC also publishes The Researcher, a quarterly electronic newsletter, for which it welcomes contributions. Members of the public and other agencies may also use the Refugee Documentation Centre to conduct their own research.

VII. LEGAL AID

For administrative proceedings in front of the Asylum Board no legal aid is provided. However, there are several organizations that give advice to asylum seekers free of charge.

Legal aid is provided only for court proceedings to citizens and to foreigners who have a permit to stay, if without means (the annual income limit actually is Euro 9.723,84)

For civil proceedings the request must be submitted to the legal aid board of the “Consiglio dell’ordine degli avvocati” of the town where the case will be introduced, in the same offices there are lists of lawyers who accept cases through legal aid.

In case of appeal against expulsion legal aid is provided even for irregular migrants and the request is presented directly to the deciding judge.

In criminal proceedings the request is presented directly by the lawyer to the deciding judge.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF REFUGEE LAW AND POLICY

The lawyers and the associations mentioned in the previous sections have an overall knowledge of refugee law and can reply to academics and experts if needed. The following list includes only researchers who volunteered to be listed.

VII. LEGAL AID

According to the Law on Legal Status of Aliens asylum seekers have a right to free legal aid. The Lithuanian Red Cross has an Agreement with the Ministry of Interior on Providing Legal Services to Asylum Seekers. The Lithuanian Red Cross is also the implementing partner of UNHCR in providing legal assistance to asylum seekers and refugees, which is not covered by the Agreement with Ministry of Interior. Accordingly, the Lithuanian Red Cross hires two lawyers who provide legal assistance to asylum seekers and refugees on a regular basis. Lithuanian Red Cross lawyers provide legal assistance to all asylum seekers in Lithuania. Legal assistance covers all stages of asylum procedure. It includes legal consultations, participation in interviews, preparation of opinions to the Migration Department and appeals to courts, representation in courts in the cases of detention and asylum. Lithuanian Red Cross lawyers also provide legal assistance to refugees. Usually refugees receive legal consultations concerning their social integration, family reunification, application for new temporary or permanent residence permits, receiving travel documents, rights in the labor market, etc.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

No airport/border services are in place in Luxembourg. However, since recently, member organisations of the Luxembourg platform ("Lëtzebuerger Flüchtlingsrôt") are allowed, on a regular basis, to meet asylum seekers which are subject to a retention decision, at the retention centre.

VII. LEGAL AID

There is a legal aid scheme covering lawyers' fees in relation to asylum cases. The scheme covers both the provision of legal advice and legal assistance in the asylum procedure, be it administrative or judicial. The legal aid scheme is available to all asylum seekers with no or low income.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF ASYLUM LAW AND POLICY

The Federation of Refugee Organisations (VON) in the Netherlands was founded in 1985 primarily as an advisory council to the Dutch government on matters of minority policy. Together with similar councils of other minority groups they regularly consult with the government about the position of minority groups in the Netherlands. In 1987 ten of the largest refugee organisations had become affiliated to VON. By way of writing advisory reports, information dissemination and training VON tries to improve the knowledge about refugee matters for member-organizations, governmental authorities, political parties and other organisations.

III. ORGANISATIONS SUPPORTING ASYLUM SEEKERS

See following section.

IV. ORGANISATIONS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

VluchtelingenWerk Nederland has approximately 500 local sections all over the Netherlands, consisting mainly of volunteers. These sections provide legal counselling and social assistance to asylum seekers and refugees. Housing and material assistance is provided by national and local authorities. Addresses and telephone numbers of local sections of VluchtelingenWerk can be obtained through VluchtelingenWerk Nederland (see above).

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers must make their request for asylum at one of the national Application Centres (AC). These centres will act as channels with regard to admittance to the Screening and Reception Centres (OC). In the Application Centers as well as in the Screening and Reception Centres legal aid is provided. The Legal Aid Board in Asylum procedures is responsible for the organisation of legal aid in the AC's and the OC's.

Legal assistants of the Legal Aid Board as well as private lawyers are providing legal aid to the asylum seeker after arrival and during the determination procedure in the Netherlands. In general this legal aid is free.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Asylum seekers can seek asylum at the border control at the airport or Storskog, the only Norwegian external Schengen land border station, or any international port, and should do so immediately upon arrival. Asylum seekers arriving from within the Schengen area or to a port with no border control should apply to the closest police station. The asylum applications will be registered by the police and the asylum seeker will be offered to stay in an asylum camp. On rare occasions detention will be used, but the asylum seekers will be given free legal assistance by the lawyer of his or her choice and be brought before a tribunal as quickly as possible if the detention exceeds one night. All asylum seekers will be given free legal assistance by the lawyer of his or her choice if they are not granted a residence permit at the time a negative decision is made, and he or she will have the possibility to appeal the decision. If the asylum seeker has not requested a particular lawyer before the decision is made one will be appointed.

There are no NGOs providing help at the airport/border station but if detained the asylum seeker has the right to free legal assistance from the lawyer of his or her choice.

A decision on rejection/refused entry can not be effectuated until the asylum claim has been examined. A foreigner being

VII. LEGAL AID

1. Upon arrival asylum seekers are given legal information by NOAS, an NGO given this task by the Directorate of Immigration. Unaccompanied minors and some other groups can be given free legal aid by an independent lawyer before a decision is made. Unless a specific lawyer has been requested one will be appointed from a list. Once a specific lawyer has been appointed free legal aid cannot be given by another lawyer.
2. If receiving a negative decision every asylum seeker will receive free legal aid by an independent lawyer. Unless a specific lawyer has been requested an immigration lawyer will be appointed from a list. Once a specific lawyer has been appointed free legal aid cannot be given by another lawyer. Also manifestly ill-founded and Dublin cases will receive free legal aid, but to a lesser extent.
3. Free legal aid is given by the state according to standardised rates. If deemed necessary due to the complexity of the case further legal aid will be given upon application. The lawyer will make necessary applications. Under the legal aid system the lawyer has the duty to give assistance that is deemed necessary.
4. Legal aid is rarely given to try cases before the national courts. The Norwegian Bar Association is running a project to have more negative decisions tried by the courts. Cases are being presented to a committee which will recommend cases to be brought before the courts on a no cure-no pay basis by experienced lawyers.

VII. LEGAL AID

Section 52 (2) of the Asylum Act entitles the Portuguese Refugee Council (PRC) to provide free legal assistance at all stages of the asylum procedure. PRC also provides other juridical assistance concerning e.g. family reunification requests, contracts, housing or professional problems to asylum seekers and refugees, nationality processes. There is a legal aid scheme which allows free legal representation by private Lawyers for judicial appeals. This scheme covers both court and lawyers' fees. However, according to the referred legal aid scheme lawyers are not chosen by the parts but nominated by the Lawyers' Bar Association, after authorisation provided by the Institute of Social Welfare.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

CNRR provides legal assistance for those who apply for asylum at the borders when it is informed of the situation.

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal aid is disciplined by articles 74 to 80 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Art. 74 stipulates that “One who cannot afford his/her judiciary fees without endangering his/her family financial situation can ask for free judiciary assistance”. If the judge admits the request, a lawyer is appointed by the local bar association.

However, most of the lawyers from the legal aid list are not specialised in asylum and do not speak a foreign language. CNRR, implementing a UNHCR sub-project, has budget to assist asylum seekers and runs a network of lawyers from Bucharest, Galati and Timisoara.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Monitoring of the situation at borders and airports is very limited due to restrictions in access to these areas and the size of the land border of Russia.
For information on all legal questions, contact “Memorial”:

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal aid is enshrined in the constitution but only in certain cases foreseen by law (see Federal Law No. 63 from 31.05.2002). There are unclear provisions for its implementation so in practice it is difficult to get access to this.

In the case of refugees free legal assistance is not provided by the state. However, the UNHCR and the European Commission provide a considerable part of funding to organisations and lawyers belonging to the network “Migration and Rights” who are therefore able to offer their services.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Until now Slovenia did not have airport services even though Article 26 of the new Asylum Act does entail a new fast-track procedure, according to which authorities can process the admissibility of an asylum application in 48 hours. However this provision is not implemented in practice, as the Constitutional Court, while reviewing the constitutionality of the new Act, issued a temporary injunction forbidding the authorities to use this Article until the Court makes a final decision. UNHCR had a project monitoring the borders with Croatia in the past years, however this has now ended.

VII. LEGAL AID

With the Law on Amendments to the Law on Asylum – Zazil-D several novelties relating to the asylum seekers' right to free legal counselling and refugee counsellor have been added to the Asylum Act. First, the right to free legal assistance is granted only in procedures before Administrative and the Supreme Court and second, the refugee counsellors are now appointed by the Minister of Interior.

In the asylum procedure, the Ministry of Interior is the body deciding on the asylum seeker's application at the first instance of the procedure, while in the appellate procedures the Ministry is even in a role of the opposing party and is thus in conflict with the asylum seeker. The Ministry of Justice is also designated to set the criteria for providing services of attorney's nature for other persons/bodies. For example, according to the Law on Free Legal Assistance, first/initial legal advice and free legal assistance can be provided also by persons who are not attorneys, but only upon the consent of the Ministry of Justice, where the Ministry in advance creates the procedure of testing the fulfillment of the criteria for performing such service, the regulations of monitoring of the provision of legal assistance, the fees and the manner of the payment etc.

The ZAzil-D is also disputable due to the fact that it does not stipulate a right to charge for all the services performed by the refugee counsellors, but rather only for those that are specified by the Ministry of Interior which is the opposing party in the appellate procedures.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

CEAR legal team (Madrid and Barcelona),
ACCEM legal team (Madrid)
For contact details see section II above.

Bar Association of Madrid
Web: www.icam.es

VII. LEGAL AID

1. Spanish Law recognizes for asylum seekers who have a low income the right to free legal aid for the administrative determination procedure and also for the subsequent judicial review and appeal procedures.
2. Asylum seekers at border points (checkpoints, international seaports and airports) are entitled to legal advice through a private lawyer or a public attorney, provided free of charge by NGOs (see sections II and VII) or the local Bar Association.

SPAIN (☎ 34)

3. Voluntary agencies can also provide free legal advice throughout the determination procedure. Due to the difficulties involved in the proceedings, it is strongly recommended to be advised by an Immigration and Asylum Law practitioner.

4. The Asylum Act also establishes that NGOs assisting asylum seekers and refugees can play a consultative role in the determination procedure by submitting written reports on individual cases. Organisations listed under section III may provide this service. They are also in close contact with the UNHCR Branch Office, which under Spanish Law has to be heard in every individual case.

5. Free legal aid for litigation must be requested through the Bar Association Legal Assistance Service (Servicio de Orientación Jurídica del Colegio de Abogados) needed for other lawyers in the area under their responsibility.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF REFUGEE LAW AND POLICY

The lawyers mentioned above (section V) can provide all necessary information on asylum matters, and also give reference if

VII. LEGAL AID

In cases where there is a risk that the asylum applicant may be refused entry, legal assistance is provided through the appointment by the Migration Board of a public counsel under Chapter 11, article 8 of the Aliens Act who is thus appointed by the State. The appointment is made either on a request by the applicant, or automatically where the authorities consider it necessary. From the beginning of the procedure, a public counsel represents an asylum seekers until a final decision has been made on the application. Generally, a public counsel will not be appointed in cases where the grounds for asylum are considered obviously unfounded or in cases of immediate removal, such as refusal of entry under the Dublin Regulation.

VII. LEGAL AID

The organisations listed in the index above provide legal aid to asylum seekers for free or at minimal charges. Legal aid is available at the reception centres and during the determination and appeals procedure. Information sheets should be available at the reception centres. On request, legal aid can be provided for free or at reasonable charges by organisations listed in the index. Asylum seekers can be represented at their expense by independent lawyers. In very rare cases, the Federal Office for Migration or the Swiss Administrative Court grant free legal aid.

VII. LEGAL AID

There is a legal aid scheme which allows free legal advice to be given by certain private lawyers and voluntary agencies to asylum seekers who have a low income. This scheme will also cover the costs of court hearings subject to a fairly strict merits test.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF REFUGEE LAW AND POLICY

The Immigration Law Practitioners' Association also includes academics and legal experts on asylum and refugee law.
